

IMPORTANT LEGAL RISK & PROGRAM DISCLAIMER

S7F Private Capital Club is not a hedge fund, investment fund, broker, asset manager, or financial advisory service. We do not pool funds, do not operate PAMM or MAM structures, and do not solicit or accept investments.

All participants within S7F Private Capital Club are referred to as account holders or contributors, not investors or clients. Participation is voluntary and based entirely on the account holder or contributor's independent decision to copy trades in order to take part in potential income generated through trading activity

1. Participation

Participation is approval only. Upon approval, account holders or contributors are required to make a minimum deposit of $500 to become officially active within the program. Deposits above the minimum are permitted at the sole discretion of the account holder or contributor.

For transparency purposes, S7F Private Capital Club facilitates the creation of a trading account to which account holders or contributors are granted full viewing access. This access allows monitoring of all trading activity, including positions, deposits, withdrawals, and account performance in real time. The account is provided strictly for transparency and monitoring purposes only.

2. Acknowledgement

Account holders or contributors acknowledge that they do not control, direct, pause, stop, or interfere with trade execution, strategy decisions, or risk application. S7F Private Capital Club applies its own execution methodology and risk structure but does not guarantee profitability, income, or capital preservation.

3. Risk Disclosure

All trading involves substantial risk, including partial or total loss of funds. Any examples, projections, illustrations, or performance references are informational only and do not constitute guarantees. Past performance does not guarantee future results.

4. Contractual Completion and Performance Target

The contractual relationship between S7F Private Capital Club and the account holder or contributor shall be deemed fulfilled once a total return equivalent to fifteen (15) times the initial deposited amount has been achieved. There is no guaranteed or fixed timeframe to reach this target, and participation may involve periods of drawdown or financial loss.

5. No Investment Advice or Solicitation

Nothing provided by S7F Private Capital Club shall be construed as investment advice, a solicitation to invest, or an offer of securities. S7F Private Capital Club, including its operators, partners, and affiliates, shall not be held liable for losses resulting from market conditions, volatility, execution delays, technical malfunctions, or broker-related issues.

5. Acknowledgment of Risk and Limitation of Liability

By proceeding, the account holder or contributor acknowledges full understanding of the associated risks, accepts full responsibility for their participation, and agrees that S7F Private Capital Club bears no responsibility or liability for account performance or financial outcomes.
